

Food Lion Opens New Hancock, Md., Store Nov. 1

November 3, 2017

Grocer Gives First 100 Customers $10 Gift Cards and Donates More than 6,000 Meals to Local Feeding Agency for Area Families in Need

SALISBURY, N.C. – Food Lion will celebrate the grand opening of its newest Maryland store, located at 345 N. Pennsylvania Ave., in Hancock Md., on Wednesday, Nov. 1.

"Food Lion is proud to join the Hancock community," said Eric Sword, Food Lion's director of operations for this region. "We look forward to creating an easy shopping experience for our customers as we offer an expanded assortment of quality, fresh products, while ensuring the low prices our customers expect from Food Lion."

The store will open to the public at 8 a.m. on Nov. 1 following a 7:45 a.m. ribbon-cutting ceremony. At the grand opening festivities, Food Lion will distribute $10 gift cards and insulated totes to the first 100 customers. In addition, the company will announce a 6,000 meal donation to Interfaith Service Coalition as part of its Food Lion Feeds initiative, where the company is working to end hunger in local communities. The food donation will include fresh produce and other shelf-stable products to help feed families in need.

Food Lion's new Hancock store will be open daily from 7 a.m. until 11 p.m.

"We look forward to creating an easy shopping experience for our customers as we offer an expanded assortment of quality, fresh products, while ensuring the low prices our customers expect from Food Lion."
