Grocer Partners with Southern Living to Offer Holiday Tips Guide Through Dec. 27

Public Company Information:

NYSE: DEG

Food Lion is now offering its MVP customers Southern Living magazine of tasty recipes and useful tips to help shoppers prepare special treats for entertaining family and friends throughout the holiday season.

Customers may take advantage of the colorful guide by presenting their MVP card to the cashier at checkout. Shoppers also must spend at least $35 and purchase one Kraft Foods or ConAgra Foods product. These products are easily identifiable with specially-marked tags throughout the store. Customers can get their guide at the Southern Living Holiday Chimney display located near the front of each Food Lion store.

The holiday guide, which will be available through Dec. 27, is entitled, "Our Best Holiday Desserts." This 48-page publication is packed with delicious ideas for preparing cakes, pies, cookies and many other special desserts for the holiday. The guide also includes special Food Lion coupons.

The holiday recipe and tips guide is available at all Food Lion locations while supplies last. Customers are limited to one guide per shopping visit. For more information about the holiday promotion, go to www.foodlion.com.
