Omnichannel retailer responds to disaster recovery efforts from Hurricane Idalia with donation to American Red Cross

SALISBURY, N.C., Sept. 12, 2023 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Food Lion Feeds is committing $20,000 to assist with disaster recovery and relief efforts from Hurricane Idalia following flooding and power outages that impacted southern Georgia communities. The donation will help American Red Cross in providing food, emergency shelter, relief supplies and comfort to those affected by the catastrophic destruction. Food Lion Feeds was founded in 2014 by Food Lion, an omnichannel grocery retailer, to address food insecurity in the towns and cities it serves.

The donation also helps support American Red Cross volunteers who are driving emergency response vehicles stocked with meals and relief supplies — such as buckets, shovels and gloves — directly into storm-ravaged neighborhoods to make these essentials easy to access.

"We're honored to support American Red Cross in their disaster and response efforts," said Kevin Durkee, Manager, Food Lion Feeds, Food Lion. "Our neighbors and associates know they can count on Food Lion in their time of need. During difficult moments, we are reminded of the strength and resiliency of our communities to come together and help one another. We are grateful for the tireless efforts of the American Red Cross to support the recovery of our neighbors, friends and families in south Georgia."

The American Red Cross has significant relief efforts underway in Florida's Big Bend region and southern Georgia, including providing volunteers, supplies and help to the areas impacted most.

"We appreciate the generosity of our partners at Food Lion who stand with us as we serve communities impacted by Hurricane Idalia," said Allison Taylor, Regional Executive, Greater Carolinas Region of the American Red Cross.

In addition to the donation to American Red Cross, Food Lion Feeds assisted its partner food bank, Second Harvest of South Georgia, in Valdosta, GA, by providing a semitrailer of 19 pallets of water. The Food Lion bottled water equals more than 40,000 pounds or nearly 4,000 gallons. Second Harvest of South Georgia serves 26 counties with branches in three cities. Food Lion Feeds has a long history of supporting communities after natural disasters. In 2022, Food Lion Feeds provided more than $160,000 in donations to the American Red Cross to support recovery efforts from flooding in Eastern Kentucky and hurricane devastation in Florida.
