SALISBURY, N.C. – Food Lion is expanding Food Lion To Go, its eCommerce platform, by making online ordering available at 36 additional stores in North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Maryland through foodlion.com and the Food Lion app.

This enhancement will provide more neighbors easier access to fresh, affordable groceries via Food Lion To Go, which offers online grocery pickup and home delivery services.

This rollout builds on continued eCommerce growth for the omnichannel retailer, which already offers Food Lion To Go pickup and/or home delivery across 100% of its 10-state operating area.

"Customers want grocery shopping to fit into their lives, whether that's in-store or online," said Evan Harding, Director of Digital and eCommerce, Food Lion. "Food Lion To Go allows us to meet our neighbors where they are by offering a simple, easy shopping experience—delivering the same fresh food and value they can count on from Food Lion. As eCommerce continues to grow, we're focused on making it easier for our customers to shop whenever, wherever and however they prefer."

The expansion gives customers additional options to shop online for pickup or home delivery. While delivery through third-party eCommerce partners has previously been available at these locations, the expansion of Food Lion To Go provides customers with more options to shop directly with Food Lion through its website and app.

Food Lion To Go orders are handpicked by Food Lion associates familiar with the products in their stores. Associates are trained to select fresh, high-quality items at affordable prices, delivering the same care customers expect when shopping in-store.

Where permitted by law, customers 21 and older can also purchase beer and wine through Food Lion To Go. By linking their Food Lion MVP savings card, customers can use digital coupons, redeem Shop & Earn rewards and access MVP discounts and weekly savings specials.

Food Lion To Go is available seven days a week from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. at participating stores.
